

Parents -

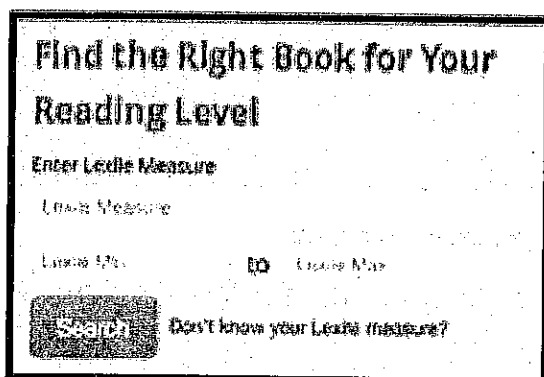

Below you will find a website where you can find book suggestions for your child based on their Lexile reading level.

STEP 1: Log-on to www.lexile.com.

STEP 2: Use the search function on the homepage.

Enter your child's Lexile level.

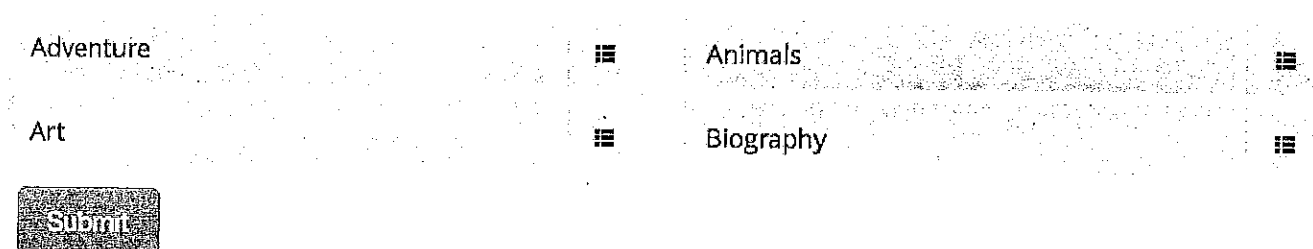

Click "Search."

STEP 3:

You will be asked to filter by book preferences such as interest, fiction/nonfiction, etc. (See below.) After you press "SUBMIT" at the bottom of the page, you will be provided with a list of books at your child's level and based on their interests.
