Dear Parents,

Your child is being assigned a one to one electronic device as an educational tool for learning at Arroyo Vista Charter School. This device will be assigned specifically to your child. It is the only one he/she will use. Your child will be responsible for this device for their entire year at Arroyo Vista Charter School. Please review the standards for use with your child. You and your child are both required to sign this contract before he/she can receive the device. The device will only be used at school.

Standards for Laptop Use

- The device will be for educational use only.
- Students will not download or install any applications, unless instructed by the teacher to do so
- School administration will authorize all applications added to the laptop
- Students will be responsible for the device
- When the device is not being used it must be stored in the cart in the classroom of the student.

Consequences for misuse of the laptop

- First offense: the device will be taken away for a week
- Second offense: the device will be taken away for three weeks
- Third offense: the device will be taken away for a quarter

Sincerely,

Pat Roth
Principal
